Fol. 1. Recto: 26 lines, top and part of right margin defective.

Arabic. The conclusion of a lawsuit (beginning missing) involving several litigants. Some agents and merchants (בְּנֵי מִשְׁכָּנֵינוּ אֲשֶׁר) and a widow are suing X for various sums. He in turn appears to desire to pay this only after the money owed him by the late Ibn Saba is refunded to him by Ibn Saba's surviving children (בְּנֵי יִבְנֵי אִבְנֵי סָבָא). The court orders him to repay the money immediately out of goods in his possession, and decrees that his own claim will be met as soon as Ibn Saba's sums in the possession of his children are computed and he swears an oath before the orphans that the money is owed to him.
