Nathan B. Perry gives to his wife's friend (Sittum) a certain amount of land in the Singuak quarter of Sikkim 1.7 20 25 2.13 in the sheet (width) 100 ft. or thereabouts, as 2005 11'8"

Although now 2005 11'8" is given also in 1856, 1 x given in '07 from the estate of his father

The first, incomplete, doc. (the rest of which was cut away) in the name of the two sisters, the second on that requires also a certain amount of land (above p. 6) but lacks the whole document of gift for Sittum. Perhaps regarded as too little. 1812 x 1814

(Does this mean that father's house was 100 d. worth?)

Remarkable: curious writing super classic in 1011 and his types on both sides.
